PAUL A. ENGELMAYER, United States District Judge:

The Court grants the defendant's application for compassionate release subject to the following conditions:

2. The defendant shall self-quarantine at the Phillibert Residence for 14 days following his release from BOP custody. During the 14-day period, the defendant shall not leave the Phillibert Residence unless the United States Probation Office (the "Probation Office") has given him advance permission to do so. The defendant shall have access to a cellphone with video-conferencing technology throughout the self-quarantine period, and shall be reachable and available to videoconference with the Probation Office at all times. The defendant shall provide his cellphone's contact information to the Probation Office no later than September 3, 2021.
3. The defendant shall report to the Probation Office at 500 Pearl Street, 6th floor, at 9:00 a.m. on September 17, 2021, to have location monitoring technology affixed to his ankle.

The defendant shall serve the first eight months of supervised release on home detention, to be enforced by technology at the discretion of the Probation Office, at a residence approved by the Probation Office. During the portion of that eight-month period that follows the 14-day self-quarantine described above, the defendant shall be permitted to leave the residence approved by the Probation Office only for medical appointments, employment reasons, or with the advance permission of the Probation Office.

5. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of monitoring, based on his ability to pay, as determined by the Probation Office. The defendant shall disclose all financial information and documents requested by the Probation Department to assess his ability to pay.

SO ORDERED.
